DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 11/17/2008 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 56-58 60-65, 67-69 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. A claimed process is surely patent-eligible under § 101 if: (1) it is tied to a particular machine or apparatus, or (2) it transforms a particular article into a different state or thing. See Benson, 409 U.S. at 70; Diehr, 450 at U.S. at 192; see also Flook, 437 U.S. at 589 n.9. The mere field-of-use limitations are generally insufficient to render an otherwise ineligible process claim patent-eligible. See Diehr, 450 at U.S. at 191-92. In this case, the claims are considered non-statutory because the claimed process is not tied to a particular machine or apparatus.

Claims 70-72, 74-76 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. "Functional descriptive material consists of data structures and computer programs which impart functionality when employed as a computer component.” (MPEP 2106). When functional descriptive material is recorded on some computer-readable medium it becomes structurally and functionally interrelated to the medium and will be statutory in most cases since use of technology permits the function of the descriptive material to be realized. See Lowry, 32 F.3d at 1583-84, 32 USPQ2d at 1035. The specifications discloses software only see page 23 Ln 14-15.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The Applicant's invention is directed to creating a desired group from two groups. The Applicant arguments regarding the McFadden reference(US Patent 2003/0126137) not explicitly specifying the exclusion of second group is persuasive. And further the amendments distinguish from prior art, in that even though the definition of desired group excludes second group, the desired is always public group, and results in second group being able to view the contents of desired group.

As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's reply must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).
